

TRAVEL GRANTS

Interested in a Career in Applied Anthropology?

The Department of Anthropology and Middle Eastern Cultures at Mississippi State University invites applications for travel grants of up to $500. These grants are to support travel by prospective graduate students who would like to visit the campus and meet with AMEC faculty. We offer a M.A. in Applied Anthropology, with focus areas in cultural anthropology and archaeology/bioarchaeology. Deadlines for degree program applications are March 15 for fall admission and October 15 for spring admission. For program details, please see our web site at <http://www.amec.msstate.edu>. If interested, please fill out and return form below.

Name:

Address:

Phone:
e-mail:

Current major or highest degree held:

University:

Current year in school or year degree obtained:

Current grade point average:

Other pertinent information (honors, awards, etc.):

Please provide a brief statement about why you are interested in obtaining a Master's degree in anthropology, which focus area you are interested in, and why you are considering Mississippi State University.

Please mail, fax or e-mail form to:

Evan Peacock, Graduate Coordinator, Anthropology and Middle Eastern Cultures, PO Box AR,
Mississippi State, MS 39762. peacock@anthro.msstate.edu. Fax: 662-325-8690.
Questions? Contact Dr. Peacock by e-mail or at 662-325-1663.

