

TRAVEL GRANTS for PROSPECTIVE MA STUDENTS

Are you interested in completing an MA degree in Applied Anthropology?

The Department of Anthropology and Middle Eastern Cultures (AMEC) at Mississippi State University (MSU) invites applications for travel grants of up to $800. These grants are to support travel by prospective students who would like to visit the MSU campus and meet with faculty and current students. We offer an MA in Applied Anthropology, with focus areas in cultural anthropology and archaeology, bioarchaeology, and forensic anthropology. Deadlines for MA degree program applications are February 15th for fall admission and October 15th for spring admission, annually. Funding (stipend, 100% tuition waiver) is available for the MA program on a competitive basis. For program details, please see our web site at <http://www.amec.msstate.edu>. If you are interested in visiting MSU, please complete this form.
